AN ACT

For the relief of Edward J. Maurus.

Edward J.
Maurus.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Edward J. Maurus, former disbursing officer of the United States Navy, the amount of $170.72. This amount represents money paid from his personal funds to liquidate deficiencies incurred in his accounts, which deficiencies did not result from bad faith or lack of due care on his part.

SEC. 2. The relief herein authorized shall not bar recovery from the payees or beneficiaries of the amounts improperly received by them.

Approved June 11, 1964.

AN ACT

For the relief of Mrs. Faye E. Russell Lopez.

Faye E. R.
Lopez.

56 Stat. 381.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That Mrs. Faye E. Russell Lopez, of Tacoma, Washington, is relieved of all liability to repay to the United States the sum of $900, which was erroneously paid to her by the United States pursuant to the Servicemen's Dependents Allowance Act of 1942 for the period from November 1, 1943, through April 30, 1945, as a family allowance on account of herself as a dependent of Edwin J. Russell (Army serial number 6257274).

SEC. 2. The Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Mrs. Faye E. Russell Lopez, an amount equal to the aggregate of any amounts paid or withheld from sums otherwise due him by reason of the liability referred to in section 1 of this Act. No part of the amount appropriated in this section shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

Approved June 11, 1964.

AN ACT
For the relief of John T. Cox.

June 11, 1964
[H. R. 8828]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to Philip Y. Craig, of 1610 Hershey Lane, Alexandria, Virginia, the sum of $1,091.18. The payment of such sum shall be in full settlement of all claims of the said Philip Y. Craig against the United States and John T. Cox, and in payment of the judgment and costs docketed in the municipal court for the District of Columbia on December 3, 1962, in favor of the said Philip Y. Craig against the said John T. Cox for false arrest, growing out of an incident at Washington National Airport on May 18, 1958, while said John T. Cox was on duty there as a member of the airport police force: Provided, That no part of the money appropriated in this Act in excess of 20 per centum thereof shall be paid or delivered to or received by any agent or attorney on account of services rendered in connection with this claim, and the same shall be unlawful, any contract to the contrary notwithstanding. Any person violating the provisions of this Act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined in any sum not exceeding $1,000.

John T. Cox.
